HONOLULU — Cathy Campbell places a rosette next to her father's name, U.S. Air Force Col. William E. Campbell, during a rosette laying ceremony at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, Honolulu, April 12, 2025. When a service member's remains are found and identified, a bronze rosette is placed next to their name at a National Memorial Cemetery. This ceremony is a reminder of the commitment to provide the fullest possible accounting for America's missing personnel to their families and the nation.
